AMUSEMENTS

ACADEMY OF MUSIC—THE HANDEL AND HAYDN CONCERPS.—The forthcoming series of Handel and Haydn Concerts, to be given at the Academy of Music, promise to be the most successful ever given by this popular Society. The efforts now making, and the liberality evinced by the gentlemen to whom the management has been intrusted, in order to insure a series of musical entertainments of the highest artistic excellence, cannot be too highly commended. Their first concert will take place on Thursday even-Their first concert will take place on Thurnday evening, December 13, when Mendelsohn's Elijah will be produced. The two succeeding oratorios will be St. Paul and David. The new vocalists engaged for the present season, Miss Caroline McCaffrey, Miss H. M. Alexander, Mr. George Simpson, and
Dr. Guilmette, have each an envisible record. The sale of soats (at the rate or tou dollars for the three and seven for two), for the entire season, is pro-gressine rapidly at Trumpler's, so that to insure subscriptions at all, applications will have to be made early.

THE AMERICAN THEATRE - The Black Crook —
The drama of The Black Crook, by Charles M.
Barras, that has been creating so great a sensation in New York city at Niblo's, will be produced in this city, this evening, at the American Theatre, Wanuf street, above Eightb, under the direction of the author, and with new and gorgeous scenery and intricate and novel machinery. The popular dansenses, Kate Pennover and Susic Summerfield, have been engaged, and will perform, with a superrior ballet corps, in this piece, This drama is thoroughly romantic and sen a ional, and the supernatural element in it is quite strong. If half that is said about it be true, it is the greatest theatrical card of the season.

NEW CHESNUT STREET THEATER.-Jefferson ap pears again this evening at the Chesnut Street Thea-re as "Rip Van Winkle," in the drama of that name, as altered by Boucleault. This personation is really one of the very best efforts of those times, and evinces very high talent in Mr. Jefferson. We tear that our play-goers do not properly appreciate his WALNUT STREET THEATRE.-This is the last week of Mr. Edwin Booth's engagement at the Wainut. To-night be will play "Richellen;" to-morrow "The Stranger" and "Don Cæsar de Bazan;" Wednesday, "Hamlet;" Thursday, "Petrucheo" and "Romeo;" and on Saturday, at the Matmee, "Hamlet," Mr. Booth's engagement in this city has been a constant series of agreement and this city has been a constant series of successes, and he is no doubt gratified at the high appreciation in which he is held by our playgoers.

ARCH STREET THEATRE.—Mr. Dan Bryant, the famous Irish comedian, has had such great success in his beautiful drama of Shamus O'Brien, success in his beautiful drams of Sadaus of Bries, that he will repeat it this week, with all its popular ligs, sones, and jokes. Mr. Bryant will close his engagement at the Arch next Saturday, and will be succeeded by Mr. and Mrs. Howard Paul.

THE FRENCH OPERA TROUPE, which was announced as intending to perform at the Academy of Music this evening, will not visit this city at present, on secount of the illness of one of the artists. Tacket holders, it is also announced, will have their money retunded, by applying at the offices where their tickets were purchased.

CARNOROSS & DIXEY, at the Eleventh Street Opera House, have overflowing houses every even-ing. For iun and amusement of all kinds their ex-hibitions are unsurpassed. The audience is in a con-inued roar from the beginning to the end of the en-

A TWEATER BURNED.—A despatch dated Petersburg, Va., November 18, says:—"Phonix Hall, the only theatre in this city, was burned at an early hour this morning. The building was insured for $8000 or $9000 in the Metropolitan office in New York, which covers only about half the loss. Harry hiscarthur closed an engagement at the hall last night. His company lost all their wardrobes. The fire originated accidentally."

A FREE FIGHT IN WEST PHILADELPHIA. -Last evening, shortly before 8 o'clock, a number of youngsters tied a rope across the sidewalk at Thirty-seventh street and Lancaster avenue. In consequence thereof, although the evening was moderately light, any one passing that point made intimate acquaintance with mother earth. Officer Wilcox, whose beat is in that neighborhood, as soon as he found out the innocent amusement of the young larks, arrested a couple of the most prominent. No sooner had he taken them under his wing than an outery was raised. Forthwith, from doors and alieys, streamed a number of men and women, th parents and uncles and aunts of the young prisoners, and they forthwith rushed to the rescue of their darlings. And rescue then ensued a battle. Officer Wilcox was soon overpowered by overwhelming odds, and for awhile hors de combat. But soon rallying his energies, he rose to his feet and manfully faced the crowd, who, still pressing on him, he drew his revolver and disharged several loads at his assailants. shot took effect in the shoulder of Dennis Scully inflicting a severe wound. The aspect of affairs this point was rather cloudy, until Officer Mars came to the rescue, and between the two they surrounded the crowd, and arrested Danie Nagle, Hannah Scully, Dennis Scully, Daniel Dennin, James Bingham, and John O'Brien. They had a hearing before Alderman Allen, who held Daniel Nagle in $1000 bail for assault and battery upon Officer Wilcox; Hannah Scully and Dennis Scully in $500 bail for the same offense. The three boys, Dennin, Bingham, and O'Brien, were sent to the House of Refuge.

WENDELL PHILLIPS .- The great event o the day is the lecture of Mr. Wendell Phillips, to come off to-morrow evening at the Academy of Music, on "The Danger of the Hour." box sheet gives assurance that it will be the most brilliant house of the season. Since he was last in Philadelphia he has been made the object of national solicitude, in having been designated by Andrew Johnson as the man who ought to be hung instead of Jefferson Davis. As the people of Philadelphia will probably not be gratified very soon with an opportunity to see the man who won't be hung, they can now see the man who "ought to be hung," This may, in part, explain the great demand for seats on the occasion referred to. Whilst we do not particularly admire some of the platitudes of Phillips, we are free to admit his earnest devo-tion to the one idea of the humanity of man. That he is an orator there can be no and, probably, the very flower of New England culture; as such, then, those who admire eld quence and scholarly abilities will, no doubt, be attracted to hear one who has the reputation of being, perhaps, the firmest man of the age in his advocacy of the abstract rights of man.

GREAT AND VALUABLE SALE of fine oil paintings, pastel pictures, and crystal medal-lions, belonging to the American Art Gallery of New York (established for the encourages of artists), on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday evenings, in the Art Gallery, 1020 Chesnut street, by B. A PARRICIDAL ATTEMPT. -Edward Plott, residing in Montgomery county, near the city limits, was arrested for committing an assault and battery upon his father with intent to kill. It appears that he has been on unpleasant terms with his father for some time past. About 6 o'clock last evening they were both in the yard together, and some angry words passed between them. Edward them between them. Edward then knocked his father down and kicked him, and, running to a pile of cord wood near by, got a heavy stick and struck his father over the head with it. By some means or other he was frightened off, and en-deavored to escape, but was stopped, and taken into custody by a citizen named Dixon, who handed him over to the charge of one of our police officers. The prisoner had a hearing before Alderman Ramsdell, who held him for a further examination.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.-James McClintock was arrested yesterday for borrowing about forty dollars from a friend without asking that friend's permission. The latter, not liking such a practical joke, had James arrested and taken before Alderman Swiff, to give an account of his little transaction. Not being able to do so in a satisfactory manner, the Alderman held him to bail for a further hearing.

Quite a number of corner-loungers were arrested yesterday. They were held to keep the peace, and for their future good behavior. The usual haul of street-walkers was made last evening on our most frequented thoroughfares Owing to the efforts of our police and the thirty days' commitment rule, this nulsance is fast

ANOTHER BURGLARY. - Burglaries are becoming quite frequent of late. Each day the journals have to record one or two. Last night, about nine o'clock, some burglar or burglars taking advantage of the absence of Mr. George Ratzell and family, who had gone to church entered the house by means of skeleton keys. The whole house was ransacked in a thorough and masterly manner, that showed the marks o a professional burglar. From one of the bureans in the second story they secured about $1200 in Government bonds. No other property was taken, although there were many valuables within their reach. Mr. Ratzell's residence is No. 1004 Lemon street.

A DISHONEST SERVANT.-Mary Jackson a colored girl, who has been in the employ of Mr. Murphy, at Chesnut Hill, was arrested on Friday morning, on a charge of larceny. It ap pears that she, by some means or other obtained a key that fitted the drawers of a bureau in the house, and taking advantage of her employer's being out of the way, she ran-sacked the bureau. She took from thence two gold watches valued at $200, and about $4'39 in money. She then left to come to the city, but Officer Benson got on her track, and arrested her in a passenger car before she got here. She had a hearing before Alderman Stallman, who committed her in default of $1000 bail to answer, SUNDAY BASE-BALL PLAYERS AR-RESTED.—People living in our rural districts have been much annoyed lately by the crowds of young men who take advantage of Sunday to congregate together and play base ball. Com-plaint was made to Lieufenant Street, by people living in the neighborhood of Harrowgate, of this nuisance, and that gentleman sent out a squad of his men dressed in citizens' clothes to arrest any parties engaged in the sport. Accordingly, about twenty-eight young men were captured. They had a hearing before Alderman Holme who, after a severe reprimand, held them each in $400 bail to keep the peace, and fined them the costs.

A SKIFF FOUND.-Yesterday morning, the Harbor Police picked up a skiff that was adrift at Willow street wharf. Its length is 19 or 20 feet, and it is painted black outside, with green gunwales, and has a white stern. Its name is the Litza Schober. When found it had in it two pigs of Scotch cast-iron, weighing about 600 lbs., a woman's bat, a sail-sprit, 2 shot-bags, 2 oars, and rowlocks. The boat and property are sup-posed to have been stolen. They are now at the Noble street dock awaiting an owner.

BASE BALL.-A grand match of base ball will be played to morrow atternoon, on the grounds of the Athletics, between the well-known Champions and the Would-be's. The proceeds arising from the match are to be de-voted to the Spring Garden Improvement Society. The game last week between these Clubs netted fifty six dollars, which was banded to the treasurer of the Moyamensing Improvement Society. The game to-morrow will commence at one o'clock precisely.

SLIGHT FIRES.—About seven o'clock last evening, a slight fire broke out in a court back of Queen street, below Third. The damage was quite triffing.

At No. 407 North Front street, a fire broke out at about half-past eight o'clock this morning, but was extinguished before it gained much headway. Damage slight.

LARCENY .- Several days since a man named Mulholland seduced the wife of a Mr. Maloney, and absconded with her and $680 in greenbacks. He has been at large since, but was caught and taken before Recorder Encu this morning, and held to bail for a further hearing to-morrow at 2 o'clock.

DEATH OF A POLICE OFFICER.-William Vanneman, who has been connected with the police department for the past three years, died yesterday at his residence, No. 520 Kaufman street, after a short illness. Mr. Vanneman was a faithful and attentive officer.

CAR FIRED INTO .- On Saturday evening last, car No. 47, of the Second and Third Streets line, was fired into as it was passing Third and Mittlin'streets, by some miscreant. The ball went through the car, but no one was hurt.

Amicable Settlement of the Reconstruction Question,

The President Averse to Any Action of Congress on Suffrage.

Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc.,

NEW YORK, November 19.-A special Wash ington despatch to the Commercial Advertiser says it is confidently expected that the question of reconstruction will be amicably settled early in the approaching session of Congress, Negotiations for that purpose are in progress between the President and leading politicians of all parties, North and South. The bases of settlement will be universal suffrage and a general amuesty.

The President partially accedes to this propo sition, but insists, upon constitutional grounds, that the question of suffrage properly belongs to the States, and is so far averse to any action of Congress upon that subject.

If the assurance can be obtained from the Southern leaders of the speedy adoption of universal suffrage, the President will waive his objections. The proposed basis of settlement contemplates the abandonment of the Constitutional amendment as a condition of Southern representation.

The Post's special Washington despatch says that facts developed to-day show that there is little hope that the President will recommend impartial suffrage.

TROM WASHINGTON THIS P. M.

[SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EVENING TELEGRAPH.] Washington, November 19. From Mexico.

The Navy Department has received information of the arrival of the Tallapoosa at Galveston from off Tampico. The Tallapoosa will be succeeded by the Paul Jones near the latter place. No foreign vessels-of-war were off the river, or in the port of Tampico, on the 29th of October, and only one American vessel in the harbor, Tampico is at present in command of Colonel Gomez, with a force of eight hundred men, controlling the customs and enforcing payment of loans. The authorities of Victoria, the capital of the State of Victoria, do not recognize those of Tampico.

Their guerillas seize all goods found en roule for the interior markets, despatched from the Tampico Custom House. By letters from San Luis Potosi it is ascertained that Melia and Dupuro are to leave that place in the early part of November with an expeditionary force for the recapture of Tampico. General Pavon, who had a force of 1500 or 2000 men in the Haustica, and is now holding Tampico, has issued a proclamation declaring Puebla Vieja open to foreign commerce, which it is feared will lead to open hostilities between the forces under his command and those under Colonel Gomez. Under this state of affairs, the inhabitants of Tampico are in constant dread of the most serious discords, and a probability of the indiscriminate plunder of the town.

PRUSSIA.

The Needle Gun-Cabinet Changes-The Northern Confederation. The Prussian War Office has published a statement to show that it was not superiority of the eedle gun, but of the men who carried it, that ave victory to the Prussians.

The total consumption of cartridges during the ampaign was only seven to each infantry soldier. In the hottest engagement the highest figure was 23 per man of those present. During the war 900 cannon were brought into play, and each gun fired 40 rounds.

The New Prussian Gazette contradicts a rumor that changes would shortly be effected in the Prussian Cabinet. The progress made in the preliminary measures for the organization of the North German Confederation will, it is predicted, enable the new German Parliament to assemble at the beginning of next year.

Count Wimpffen had had an audience of the King, to present his credentials as Austrian Envoy at the Prussian Court.

ITALY. Projected Marriage of Prince Amaens. Florence (Oct 27) Correspondence London Times.

The projected marriage between Prince Amadeus of Savoy and the young Princess Della Cisterna is very generally talked of, and thought likely to take place, although few seem to suspect by what influences it has been brought about. The lady's mother is of the De Marode family, and a fervent Romanist. I hear that she is connected with the Marquis de Breme one of the great Court dignitaries. The daughter has no particular personal charms she is said to have a fortune equal to £400,000 sterling. It can hardly be supposed, however, that money would have any weight in the case of a Prince of Italy. Morganatic marriages, so common in parts of Ptotestaut Europe, being inadmissible in Catholic countries, the children resulting from the union would, in their turn, inherit the crown of Italy. In short, the marriage would be in all respects regular, would take place with the consent of all parties concerned, the only peculiarity about it being that the Prince would marry one of his father's subjects, and a person not of royal blood. The conviction generally felt that such marriages are fraught with probable evils and inconveniences, and should be avoided at any cost, is sufficiently demonstrated by the company of the foreign be avoided at any cost, is sufficiently demon-strated in England by some of the foreign alliances to which recourse is had for members of our royal family. In the case of the Italian orinces, of whom there are only two in direct succession to the crown, and one of those of a weakly constitution, it is obviously desirable that they should contract alliances that might be politically advantageous to the country. that they should contract alliances that might be politically advantageous to the country. At Vienna such alliances might be found. On the other hand, if he wished to wed athome, Prince Amadeus has a charming cousin, the daughter of the Duchess of Genos, who would make him in all respects a suitable bride. The Prince of Carignano is understood decidedly to disapprove the projected mesalliance.

Speech of Victor Emanuel to the Vene-tian Deputation.

Upon receiving the result of the Pichiscitum from the Venetian deputation on the 4th inst... King Victor Emanuel made the following reply:—

This day is the proudest of my life: eighteen years ago my father proclaimed from this city the war of independence, and to-day you bring the war of independence of the popular will in the to me manifestations of the popular will in the Venetian provinces, which, united with Italy,

Venetian provinces, which, united with Italy, declare my lather's wish to be accomplished.

"You confirm by this act what Venetia did up to 1848, and has maintained up to the present day, with admirable constancy and abnegation. I, therefore, pay a grateful tribute to those generous patriots who upbeld their faith in the destinies of the country by every kind of sacrifice, and by their blood. To-day foreign domination ceases forever. Italy is constituted, if not yet complete. Italians must now defend, and make her great. The Iron Crown is also restored to Italy, but to that Crown I prefer the one which is dearer to me, made by the love of my people."

Garibaldi has written the following letter too M. Lorigiola, who had communicated to him a plan for a rifle meeting at Padua;—

My dear Lorigiola.—Bravo! I compliment you, and wish you every success in the realization of your project. The people should be made to understand, once for all, that the carbine ought to be the gospel of the nation, and that only when well exercised in the use of that arm will they be able to say proudly, "We are Italians!" Continue, and I will aid you with all my power. Entirely yours. Italians!" Continue, and all my power. Entirely yours, G. Garibalds.

THE PRINCESS CHARLOTTE. More Satisfactory Accounts of Her Health -Her Complete Recovery Probable.

From the Memorial Diplomatique, November 2. We receive directly from Miramar satisfactory news as to the state of the Empress Charlotte. Thanks to the intelligent and assiduous care with which her Majesty is surrounded, and to the absolute repose she enjoys in that charming retreat, the moral excitement which had dis-turbed the Empress' mind is completely appessed.

The improvement, which at first appeared but The improvement, which at first appeared but slow, now assumes all the symptoms of a radical cure. At half a gunshot from the Chateau of Miramar stands a small pavilion, built in the Italian style of the Middle Ages, and covered with verdure, which is called the Gardener's House. Before leaving for Mexico the Archduke Maximilian and the Princess dwelt there in present the interest of the Archduke Maximilian and the Princess dwelt there in present the interest of the Archduke Maximilian and the Princess dwelt there in present the interest of the Archduke Maximilian and the Princess dwelt there in present the interest of the Archduke Maximilian and the Princess dwelt there in present the interest of the Archduke Maximilian and the Princess dwelt there in present the interest of the Archduke Maximilian and the Princess dwelt there in present the Archduke Maximilian and the Princess dwelt there in present the Archduke Maximilian and the Princess dwelt there in present the Archduke Maximilian and the Princess dwelt there in present the Archduke Maximilian and the Princess dwelt there in present the Archduke Maximilian and the Princess dwelt there in present the Archduke Maximilian and the Princess dwelt there in present the Archduke Maximilian and the Princess dwelt there in present the Archduke Maximilian and the Princess dwelt there in present the Archduke Maximilian and the Princess dwelt there in present the Archduke Maximilian and the Princess dwelt there in present the Archduke Maximilian and the Princess dwelt there in present the Archduke Maximilian and the Princess dwelt there in present the Archduke Maximilian and the Princess dwelt there in present the Archduke Maximilian and the Princess dwelt there in present the Archduke Maximilian and the Princess dwelt there in present the Archduke Maximilian and the Princess dwelt there in present the Archduke Maximilian and the Princess dwelt there in present the Archduke Maximilian and the Princess dwelt the Archduke Maximilian and the Princess dwelt the Archduke terence, in order to escape the irksomeness of etiquette.

The Empress has again installed herself there. and in the midst of the pleasant reminiscences which surround her, occupies her leisure with reading, music, and painting. The medical attendants insist that her Majesty shall not leave Europe during the winter. The probability is that when the weather becomes more rigorous the Empress will go to the fale of Lacroma, which is her personal property, and which enjoys the mildes; temperature of Naples.

Telegram of November 5 from Trieste. Intelligence received here from Miramar states that the general health of the Empress Charlotte is now reassuring, and that the Charlotte is now reassuring, and that the imaginary fears which her Majesty's friends had hitherto entertained have partially diminished and partially disappeared. It has, however, been decided as a measure of precaution, that the seclusion in which the Empress has lived since her srrival at Miramar shall be continued

MAXIMILIAN. He is Resolved Not to Leave Mexico.

Paris (Nov. 2) Correspondence of the London News. It is reported in the Opinion that a message has been received from the Emperor Maximilian in answer to the news of the Empress' illness. After expressing his deep sorrow tor her malady, and approving all that has been done, he adds that, being resolved at every sacrifice to sur-mount, if possible, his bad fortune, he will not leave the post which duty assigns him.

If he adheres to this determination, so entirely contrary to the wishes of his early patron, and to the instructions given to General Cas-tlenau, the position will be strangely complicated, for one would think that the French troops cannot in honor be withdrawn without a positive assurance of non-intervention on the part of the United States, and the plea of putting an end to anarchy in Mexico may thus only have resulted in setting up a new element of
